We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Richmond Community Foundation, which comprise the statements of financial position as at December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the statements of operations and changes in net assets and of cash flows for the years then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Richmond Community Foundation as at December 31, 2014 and 2013, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. As required by the Society Act of British Columbia, we report that in our opinion, the accounting principles in the Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations have been applied on a consistent basis.

Year ended December 31, 2014

1. Profile

The Richmond Community Foundation (the "Foundation") is incorporated under the Society Act of British Columbia. It is a registered charity for Canadian income tax purposes.

The objectives of the Foundation are to promote education and cultural advancement, scientific or medical research for the increase of human knowledge and alleviation of human suffering, and to provide for such other charitable purposes as may contribute to the moral, mental, cultural and physical improvements of the community.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accounting policies of the Foundation are in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Fund Accounting

The Foundation maintains its accounts in accordance with the restricted fund method of accounting. Resources are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds according to the activity or objective specified.

General Fund

The general fund accounts for the revenues and expenses related to the general operations of the Foundation. This fund is unrestricted.

Youth Foundation Fund

The Youth Foundation Fund accounts for the general revenues and expenses of the youth branch of the Foundation. This fund is unrestricted.

Endowment Fund

The Endowment Fund is comprised of individual endowment funds that are managed by the Foundation pursuant to contracts entered into by the donors and the Foundation or through internal allocation of funds. These funds are either internally or externally restricted. See attached schedule for a detailed description and listing of the funds.

Marketable Securities

The Foundation has designated its marketable securities as financial instruments held for trading. This designation allows the Foundation to measure its marketable securities at fair value and present them on this basis in the financial statements. Changes in the fair value of investments are included in the investment Foundation's net income for the period in which the change occurred.

The marketable securities held by the Foundation are all listed on public stock exchanges. The fair values used in the financial statements reflect the stock exchanges' quoted closing prices. The Foundation does not exercise any significant influence over any of its holdings.

2. Significant Accounting Policies - continued

Insurance Policies

The Foundation is the owner and beneficiary of a life insurance policy with a death benefit of $50,000. No value has been attributed to this policy in the financial statements.

Any policy premiums paid by the Foundation in respect to life insurance policies are recorded as an expense. When a contributor pays the premium, the premium paid is recorded as a contribution received and an expense.

Inter-fund Balances

Debts existing between the funds are reflected in the statement of financial position for each individual fund but eliminated in the total column for the Foundation as a whole.

An administrative fee is paid by the Endowment Fund to the General Fund. This fee is reflected in the statement of operations for each of the funds but eliminated from the total column for the Foundation as a whole.

Contribution and Donation Revenue

Contributions to the Foundation are reported when received or committed by contract. Donations are recorded into income upon receipt unless for an externally restricted project, in which case, the amounts are recorded into income when utilized for the purpose intended.

Investment Income

Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends and distributions are recorded as income when received. Gains and losses on marketable securities include both realized and unrealized gains and losses.

Property, Equipment and Amortization

Property & Equipment purchases greater than $2,500 are capitalized and then amortized over their expected useful life. Other property and equipment purchases are charged to expense when incurred. The property and equipment of the Foundation have been contributed and are not recorded in the financial statements.

Donated Equipment, Materials and Services

The value of donated equipment, materials and services are not reflected in the statements as they cannot be reasonably estimated.

Comparative Figures

2013 figures have been reclassified where applicable to conform to current presentation.

Year ended December 31, 2014

3. Marketable Securities

The security portfolios are managed in accordance with investment policies approved by the Foundation. Each of the Foundation's fund managers has full discretion, within the established policies, as to the individual securities purchased, held and sold. Marketable securities include cash, fixed income instruments, Canadian, US and international equity positions held in both Canadian and US currencies.

Cypress Capital Management Ltd.	655,292	553,664
	$ 3,657,286	$ 3,197,642

4. Funds on Deposit with the Vancouver Foundation

The Foundation was a participant in the Vancouver Foundation's matching grant program which provides support for the establishment of new and emerging community foundations in British Columbia. The Foundation contributed $110,000 toward this program. The funds are irrevocably held by the Vancouver Foundation as the Richmond Foundation Endowment Fund. The distributions received from this fund are recorded as investment income in the Endowment Fund. During the year, the Foundation recognized $5,217 of investment income from the funds held on deposit. The funds had a market value of $150,454 as at December 31, 2014.

8. Financial Instruments

A financial instrument is a contract that creates a financial asset for one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Common financial instruments include cash, accounts receivable, marketable securities, accounts payable and loans.

Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Subsequent measurement of all financial assets and liabilities are at amortized cost.

The Foundation has a comprehensive risk management framework to monitor, evaluate and manage the principal risks assumed with financial instruments. The principal risks assumed by the Foundation are as follows:

Credit Risk - The Foundation's cash and equivalents are subject to credit risk. This risk is minimized to the extent that cash is placed with a reputable Canadian financial institution.

Interest Rate Risk - The Foundation is not exposed to interest rate risk due to the short-term nature of its current assets.

Liquidity Risk - Liquidity risk is the risk that the Foundation may not have cash available to satisfy its financial liabilities as they become due. Liquidity risk is minimized by ensuring investments can be liquidated to cash as required.

Market Risk and Currency Risk - The Foundation is exposed to market and currency risk as the investments in publicly traded securities are subject to fluctuations due to price changes, currency exchange rates and interest rate in the market.
